

The Guild of Straw Craftsmen
Membership Renewal 2017 - 2018

Dear Member,

The membership fee for the Guild remains at £15 p.a. Members in Mainland Europe and Eire are asked to pay an extra £2 towards postage costs, and those in other continents an extra £4. Subscriptions are due on 1st June, the start of our Membership year.

Joint Membership. Two members living at the same address who are prepared to receive only one copy between them of Guild publications will receive a reduction of £6 on the second subscription (irrespective of country of domicile).

You are reminded that if your subscription is received after 31st July your details will not appear in the Guild Membership List, which is published with the Autumn issue of the Guild News. The names of members renewing after 31st July and those of new members will appear in the Membership List Update which is sent out with the Spring issue of the Guild News.

Please send your renewal request and cheque to the Membership Secretary. The Renewal Form itself is not essential unless any of your personal details or wishes have changed since publication of the last Membership List. It is important that we have up to date knowledge of your publication of details wishes in order to ensure that we conform to the Data Protection Act.

Overseas members are requested to send subscriptions either by sterling cheque or, if this is not feasible, by PayPal. Details of PayPal payment may be obtained from the Treasurer.

Michael Gates
